Join us on February 11, 2025, for the latest edition of our popular webinar series, What's Trending in Labor and Employment Law. The speakers will provide quick updates on the latest labor and employment law developments, including: changes in federal agency leadership since President Trump's inauguration; new state paid sick time laws that will take effect in the first half of the year; recent data on the union membership rate across the country; the impact of the California wildfires on employers; trends regarding the shrinking middle management class; the release of new artificial intelligence tools; and more! This month, Rebecca and Jesse will be joined by special guest Jeffrey Thomas from our Austin office, who will discuss how the latest federal developments are affecting immigration law.
